

Why Good Attendance Matters

Builds Good Habits

Daily attendance helps children learn that “going to school” is just what you do. It creates

Builds Relationships

Regular attendance makes it easier for children to make friends, build trust with staff and feel part of the school community.

Supports Learning & Development

Every lesson builds on the last. Missing school means missing opportunities to learn and achieve.

Boosts Confidence

Children who attend regularly know what to expect, feel more confident and have more chances to shine.

Keeps Children Safe

Regular attendance means staff can notice if something is not right. It is especially important for vulnerable children.

Good attendance = happy, confident and successful children!
